

International Collaboration: Ethics and Opportunities

Monday, August 17, 2020

1:00pm – 3:00pm PDT

*Global adaptation of a course on scientific writing and publication ethics: from Missouri to China. K Yang

Kaidi Yang
University of Missouri

*Ethics and forensic science: ethical challenges forensic scientist face. T DeAngelo

Theresa DeAngelo
Maryland State Police
Forensic Science Dept.

*Useful resources for chemical professionals seeking ethics strategies and best practices in internal collaboration. G Ferrence

Greg Ferrence
Illinois State University

*Conducting research as a Fulbright grantee in Germany. K Elkins

Kelly Elkins
Towson University

*Initiating successful international collaborations during sabbatical. L Blaney

Lee Blaney
University of Maryland

*Towards a commonly accepted science ethics: Experiences and guidance from scientists. R Glaser, K Elkins, S Schelble

Susan Schelble

Rainer Glaser

Kelly Elkins

Cosponsors:

